Burke Blog

Our annual Wild Game Dinner was a huge success thanks to our cooks Don Gallagher and Mark Lietke, all the Board members and many volunteers. The food was great; we had lots of help that made everything go very well; and we had a fantastic profit.

Our Treasurer, Bill Cole will provide the final figures at the May 12th GMM. Some upcoming events are: a Sporting Clays shoot on 17th to benefit Special Olympics, CLUB CLEAN-UP DAY on MAY 30th, (ALL RANGES WILL BE CLOSED) and our Summer Sporting Clays

League begins on June 17th. Your participation in these events will benefit you as well as Huron Pointe.

"See you at the Club,"

Joe Burke
H.P.S.A. President

Activity News

We're beginning our competition cycle the first of the National Qualifier is Saturday May 9th at Hillsdale for the USA Shooting Junior Olympic Michigan State Shoot. The kids have been practicing shooting Wobble Trap to prepare for the International Bunker (this is the first time for this shoot to be held on a bunker). We think they are ready and will let you know how they did at the GMM.

It also is the first of our many ATA & AIM shoots. We will be shooting at Michigan Trapshooting Home Grounds (ATA Spring Team Shoot), Oak Hill Gun Club (AIM), Blue Water Sportsman's Association, and Birmingham Gun Club. While shooting some of the kids will qualify for the AIM On-Line Zone Shoot.

June is jammed packed with more competitions as well. Wish the kids well and keep sending positive thoughts.

June 19th. We are having a Fund Raiser Steak Roast. Please see the Flyers in the club house or on-line and in this newsletter for more information. The funds will be used to help offset our State and National Shooting fees and shells.
